"The Hitman: Love is Deadly," follows the story of a contract killer who falls for the woman he was hired to kill. The action opens when cold-hearted husband and his partner-in-crime lover decide that murder is the only way to collect on a $2.5-million-dollar insurance policy. They soon put a hit on his wife, but things backfire when the hitman suddenly grows a conscience and has second thoughts.

The DVD includes behind-the-scenes footage, a photo slide show, animated chapter index and more.
