"We were lucky enough to get the first comeback scene of Jesse Santana, paired with JD Phoenix, who actually set up the shoot," says Nica Noelle. "JD wanted to work with Jesse so badly that he convinced him to come out of retirement to do the scene. It's a scene not to be missed!"

Noelle goes on to say, "Every scene in this film is unique thanks to the amazing cast. My favorite set up in Schoolboys is probably Connor Maguire and Ian Levine. Ian plays a boy who's being bullied at school, and Connor is his protective friend - it's a very emotional sequence and the boys are amazing from start to finish."

"Theo Ford is an amazing guy, a great performer and one of the most gorgeous men on the planet. I love the chemistry between him and Brandon Wilde. I tell Brandon he's my spirit animal, because I love his approach to life, he can charm the pants off anyone. His scenes are always fantastic. I love the contrast between him and Theo in this movie - the pretty American college boy and the European Adonis."

Dirty schoolboys are back for more illicit encounters that will leave you as hot and bothered as they are. Connor Maguire counsels bullied young schoolmate Ian Levine in the privacy of their dorm room, while Brandon Wylde confronts his mom's gorgeous, deadbeat boyfriend Theo Ford. Snotty prep school boy JD Phoenix is taught a lesson in manners by rough-around-the-edges Jesse Santana and then dreams of Dean of Students Dirk Caber making a late night visit to his bedroom. Written and directed by Nica Noelle.
