Art Koch, NightMoves Magazine/AAN National Features & DVD Editor gave the film a perfect score saying, "Ms. St. James has created a really edgy, dark feature here that should be a worthy nom during awards season in several areas. Everything plays well into this drama, the lighting, music, settings, the casting and the pace it is played out at... I can see both Abella Danger and Chanel Preston being nominated for awards for their blistering performances in this film. Kudos go to the entire cast for a job well done. The cinematography and the visual pictures it creates is excellent and paints just the right canvas." – click here for the entire AAN review

Xcritic.com reviewer Apache Warrior raved, "This film is a compelling psychological thriller with incredible performances by Abella Danger and Chanel Preston. Abella will receive a Best Actress nomination and Chanel Preston should receive a Best Supporting Actress nod. Both ladies deserve to win. I like the complexities and surprises of their characters. The tone of the sex fits its individual scene, which elevated its importance. Jacky St. James deserves to be nominated for Best Director and Best Screenplay. As for the most hottest sex performance, Reena Sky and Logan Pierce brought it... I look forward to seeing how this film does at awards season. A Best Drama winner is a high probability. The Obsession is an XCritic Pick.” –click here for the entire xcritic review.
