"She is complemented by an amazing cast who bring to life this graphic tale of life behind bars as they face their fears and deepest desires."

"Prison Heat" tells the story of Linda (Carter Cruise), who is sent to prison after murdering her husband and is then placed in a cell with Hope (Ana Foxxx) an older inmate. With the help of Hope, Linda feels more secure, especially at night when Eleanor (Sinn Sage), the heartless warren, does her night rounds. On top of it, she has to deal with the prison bully Elvira (Alison Rey) and Bette (Serene Siren), the prison doctor who exchanges sexual favors for protection. But when the lights go out, the heat rises as all the girls find solace with one another as they discover that in prison no one can hear you moan.

Shot in HD, the DVD features four scenes of lesbian sex, as well as a slide show of exclusive photos, behind-the-scenes footage, animated chapter index, no regional coding, and more.
